Speaking the truth in love or caring enough to admonish another is not easy. We may wonder: What if this damages the friendship? What if my friend gets angry or hurt? Regardless of the momentary discomfort, confrontation--when done biblically and in love--ultimately brings healing into the life of the believer. The Bible says, "Faithful are the wounds of a friend, but deceitful are the kisses ...

Speaking the truth in love is like those tendons and ligaments which hold the church together. Truth without love is inflexible and brittle. Love without truth has no backbone or structure. We live in that creative tension. We are frequently faced with situations where we would be wise to pause, reflect, pray for guidance, and then
